Chiropractic Future Announces New Leadership for Government Affairs Workgroup

Molalla, OR — Chiropractic Future is pleased to announce the appointment of Beth Clay, Executive Director of the International Chiropractors Association (ICA), as Chair of the Government Affairs Workgroup, and Lori Grassi, Executive of Legislation and Policy for the Washington State Chiropractic Association, as Vice Chair.

The Government Affairs Workgroup supports collaboration and strategic advocacy efforts that advance favorable healthcare policy to strengthen the chiropractic profession.

Beth Clay brings extensive leadership and advocacy experience to the role. As Executive Director of the ICA, she works to protect, promote, and advance chiropractic worldwide through legislative engagement, professional collaboration, and public policy initiatives. Prior to her role at ICA, Beth spent over 10 years at the National Institutes of Health and as a staff leader on Health Oversight Activities with the House of Representatives' Oversight Committee.

Lori Grassi contributes decades of experience in public policy and regulatory affairs. Lobbying since 1981 and representing chiropractic since 2001, she is a former insurance regulator and former Executive Director of the Washington State Chiropractic Association, bringing a broad and informed perspective to healthcare policy discussions.

"We are excited to welcome Beth and Lori into these leadership roles," said Dr. Tom Wetzen, Leadership Committee Chair, Chiropractic Future. "Their combined experience, relationships, and collaborative approach will strengthen the workgroup's efforts to advance meaningful policy initiatives and advocacy for the chiropractic profession."

Chiropractic Future looks forward to the leadership and partnership Beth and Lori will bring as the Government Affairs Workgroup continues to support initiatives that shape the future of chiropractic healthcare.
